OCTOBER 24, 1755 THE No. 250

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

With the freſheſt ADVICES, FOREIGN and DOMESTIC.

NEW-YORK, September 8.

As the Place where, we are informed, General Johnſon propoſes, if poſſible, to erect a Battery oppoſite to the French Fort on Crown-Point, is mentioned in the following Account of the Point, we flatter ourſelves it will not be diſſatisfactory to our Readers to inſert it at this Time. The Account was given in 1751.

ABOUT 30 Leagues from St. Jean's, on the Lake Champlain, is Fort Frederic, called by us Crown-Point, where a Bay and ſmall River to the Weſtward, form a Point on which the Fort ſtands. It is built on Stone, the Walls a conſiderable Height and Thickneſs, and has 21 Pieces of Cannon and Swivels mounted on the Ramparts and Baſtions, a few of the largeſt are Six Pounders. I obſerved the Walls cracked from Top to Bottom in ſeveral Places.

At the Entrance to the Fort is a dry Ditch 18 or 20 Feet ſquare, and a Draw-bridge, There is a ſubterraneous Paſſage under the Draw-bridge to the Lake, which I apprehend is to be made Uſe of in Time of Need, to bring Water to the Garriſon, as the Well they have in it affords but very little.——In the N. W. Corner of the Fort ſtands the Citadel, it is a Stone Building Eight ſquare, Four Story high, each turned with Arches, mounts 20 Pieces of Cannon and Swivels, the largeſt ſix Pounders, four of which are in the firſt Story, and are uſeleſs till the Walls are beat down. At the Entrance to the Citadel is a Draw-bridge and Ditch, of the ſame Dimenſions as that to the Fort. The Walls of the Citadel are about ten Feet thick, the Roof is high, and very ſlightly covered with Shingles.

To the S. S. E. and S. W. of the Fort the Ground is riſing, and is very advantageous for erecting a Battery in Caſe of a Siege, as it is not above 300 Yards diſtant from the Fort. Behind it the Land is low, and ſome Thouſands of Men may lie without receiving any Damage from the Cannon of the Fort, as the Ridge is a fine Covert, and lies circular, ſo as to flank two of the Baſtions. They have a Chapel and ſeveral other wooden Houſes within the Fort, which are put to no other Uſe than ſtoring their Proviſions. The Land near the Fort, and on each Side of the Lake, which they are ſettling, is level and good: Since the Peace there are already 14 Farms on it, and, as great Encouragement is given by the King, I was informed, that by next Fall, ſeveral more Families would ſettle.

This Fort is of very great Importance to the French; for in Time of War it ſupplies the Parties ſent to our Frontiers with Neceſſaries, and ſerves for a Place of Retreat, as it lies North from Albany only 33 Leagues.

From St. Jean, which is truely but a Magazine, they go in a Schooner to Crown-Point. Two Ways lead from hence towards Hudſon's River; the one by Lake St. Sacrament, in which there is a Mile Portage, in the Streight between the Lake and Wood Creek. 'Tis very dangerous paſſing this Lake at the Change of Weather, by Reaſon of the great Waves ariſing without much Wind, and the inacceſſible Cliffs of vaſt Mountains on the Eaſt Side. At the Head the Lake divides into two Ends, from the eaſtermoſt of which is a Portage twelve Miles, or more, to Hudſon's River. And from this Portage to Albany, you go down Hudſon's River, without any other Interruption than two little Portages of about half a Mile each. The other Way from Crown-Point towards Hudſon's River, is altogether by Wood Creek, and you are only interrupted with a Portage of a Stone's Throw or two in Length, at a Place called Kinghquaghrenec. The Portage from Wood Creek to Hudſon's River is twelve Miles alſo; and the Paſſage thence to Albany is by the ſame River, and with the ſame Interruption. The whole performed in five or ſix Days.

Capt. Bradſtreet, is, by General Shirley, appointed Adjutant-General—Col. Peter Schuyler to be Col. of the Train of Artillery.—Lieutenant Bartman, (of the Grenadiers) to be Captain of the Train—Lieutenant Mc Kinnen to be Lieutenant of the Train.——Capt. John Shirley, to be Aid de Camp.——John Cheſhire, Eſq; to be Judge Advocate.——And Mr. Montague Brown, to be Lieutenant of Capt. Gates's Independent Company of Fuſileers.

Sept. 22. We learn from Connecticut, That the laſt Party of the 2000 Men that were to be raiſed in that Government for the Aſſiſtance of General Johnſon, went from Stratford on Monday laſt, all on Horſeback, and in high Spirits. A large Drove of Cattle was ſent a-head of them.

Large Quantities of Powder and Ball were ſhipped on Saturday laſt for Albany, to be immediately conveyed to the Army at Lake George.

Laſt Week a conſiderable Sum of Money was raiſed by Subſcription in this City, and immediately laid out in Refreſhments, and ſent up to the Troops under the Command of General Johnſon, and the Subſcriptions are ſtill going on, and a further Supply is intended to be ſent off this Week.

October 6 Our laſt Accounts from Oſwego, are between the 8th and 12th of September laſt, which ſay, That they talked then of ſetting out very ſoon, but whither, even ſome of the chief Officers knew not: ----That there had not been above two or three Days for near a Fortnight before the Date of theſe Accounts, in which Battoes could ſwim on the Lake, where the Surge riſes almoſt as high as on the Beach of the Ocean.

Several Veſſels arrived here Yeſterday from New-England, deep loaded with Proviſions for Albany; and others are hourly expected.

Laſt Saturday Evening, a New-England Sloop touched here, in her Way from Albany for Connecticut, with ſome ſick People from General Johnſon's Army: They left the Camp about ten Days ſince, when our People, to the Number of between five and ſix Thouſand, were employed, until the Arrival of ſome Waggons with Neceſſaries, in building a Fort at Lake George.

LONDON.

Extract of a Letter from an Engliſh Gentleman at Calais, dated July 25.

"Laſt Wedneſday the French Ambaſſador, the Duke de Mirepoix, arrived here from England, and ſet out Poſt directly for Paris. Nothing is talked of but War, and they boaſt of having 250,000 Men ready to take the Field; and the moſt ſanguine expect a ſpeedy Declaration of War. On the other Hand the Negotiants, whoſe Effects conſiſt of Sugar, Indigo, and divers valuable Merchandizes, which they expect from St. Domingo, and Martinico, are under dreadful Apprehenſions of their falling into our Hands."

Auguſt 2. They write from Dunkirk, that when Lord Dillon's Regiment was reviewed there laſt Week, there appeared to be no more than eighteen Men of his Britannick Majeſty's Subjects in what is called the Iriſh Brigades.

And we hear that General Ruth's Regiment is much in the ſame Condition, moſt of the Men, through the Cruelty of their Officers, having deſerted to Oſtend, and either entered into the Service of the Empreſs Queen, or got a Paſſage in the Packet Boats to England.

HALIFAX, (in Nova-Scotia) Auguſt 30.

Laſt Saturday Capt. Broom, of the Royal Train of Artillery, with a Detachment from the Troops under the Command of the Hon. Col. Monckton, arrived here from Piſguit, and has brought with him three French Prieſts, and eight other Frenchmen, Priſoners who had been taken by our Troops ſince the Surrender of the French Forts at Beauſejour &c. and we hear they are now confined on Board one of his Majeſty's Ships in this Harbour.

On Tueſday laſt his Majeſty's Ship Port Mahone arrived here from the Squadron under the Command of the Hon. Rear Admiral Holbourne, now cruizing off Louiſbourg; ſhe brought in with her three French Snows, Prizes, one of which was taken by his Majeſty's Sloop Baltimore, in her Paſſage from this Place to the Fleet, and the other two were taken by Part of Admiral Holbourne's Squadron, juſt as they were entering the Mouth of Louiſbourg Harbour; one of them was a Pacquet from France, laden chiefly with Wine, one from Martinico with Rum and Melaſſes, and the other from St. Euſtatia with Proviſions.

We hear that by Papers found on Board the Pacquet there is Intelligence, that the King of France is marching an Army of 140,000 Men into Flanders.

September 6. Laſt Monday arrived here the Sloop Ulyſſes, Capt. Rogers, in the Service of this Government: He has brought with him the Remainder of the Troops belonging to the Royal Train of Artillery that went from this Place, and ſome Ordinance Stores. Capt. Rogers had 14 Days Paſſage from Chignecto, ſo brings no later Accounts than we have had.

On Tueſday laſt three of the four French Ships taken by Rear Admiral Holbourne, as mentioned in our laſt, arrived here.

The next Day arrived here his Majeſty's Ship Grafton, from the Fleet: She parted from the French Prizes on Friday Night laſt in a ſtrong Gale of Wind, and it was feared ſhe was loſt, as ſhe was near on Shore, but we hear ſhe has ſuffered no Damage at all.

The next Day arrived the fourth of the French Prizes, who came from the Fleet under Convoy of the Grafton, with the other three, but parted from them in the above-mentioned Gale of Wind.

It is reported, That Admiral Holbourne has taken three other French Veſſels ſince the fourth already arrived here; one of which being very old, and only in her Ballaſt, he ſunk; another, having the Small Pox on Board, he put on Board her the Crews belonging to the other two, and ſent them into Louiſbourg; the third he ſaw fit to detain.

It is alſo reported, That Admiral Holbourne has taken 40 Sail of the French Fiſhing Shallops, 39 of which he deſtroyed, and having put all the Hands on Board he ſent her into Louiſbourg, with Directions to inform the Governor, that if he wanted freſh Fiſh, he muſt ſend out his Men of War for them.

Remains ſtill at Louiſbourg, an Admiral with five Ships of the Line, and a Frigate, beſides a conſiderable Number of other Veſſels who do not care to venture out.

We have now in our Harbour ten French Prizes, viz. Four Ships, Five Snows and a Brigantine, beſides the Lys and Alcide, taken by the Hon. Vice Admiral Boſcawen.

BOSTON, September 15.

The military Spirit greatly prevails in all Parts in this and the other New-England Governments: As ſoon as Advice came from Major General Johnſon that a Reinforcement was needful, our People have been daily inliſting into the Service. And this Province alone will have upwards of four Thouſand Men in the Expedition to Crown-Point.——We have the warmeſt Expectations of Succeſs in that Undertaking.——Our Cauſe is juſt, and our Men inliſt from Principle.——We are not aſhamed to own our Dependance on the God of Armies, and we profeſs to go forth in His Strength.

The inglorious Defeat at the Southward has not in the leaſt abated the Courage of our Men: On the contrary, it has enkindled the Fire of Reſentment.——The Blood of our Fellow Subjects at the Ohio——the Blood of our dear Brethren upon our own Borders, ſpilt from Time to Time, cry aloud——too loud not to be diſtinctly heard.——And we cannot but hope that thoſe brave Men who are gone and are going to Crown-Point will be honored by Providence to humble the Pride of our haughty French Enemies; and be made the Inſtruments to deal all that Vengeance upon them, which their Perfidy and Cruelty deſerve.

Sept. 22. Laſt Saturday was Se'nnight, we had a Rumor of an Engagement at Lake George, in the Evening it was confirmed; the Event uncertain till Monday Night, when by an Expreſs from General Johnſon we received the News that our Forces had gained a compleat Victory. The Particulars are given in the General's Letter, which has diffuſed a general Joy.——It is a Conqueſt ſeaſonable and important; and tho' we cannot do too much Juſtice to the Bravery and Conduct of our Generals, Officers, and Men—we muſt yet acknowledge the ſingular Interpoſition of Providence in our Favor--his Hand is viſible in the Honor and Advantage we have obtained--The Enemy flushed with their late Succeſs Southward, boldly attacked our Army--about 1000 of them were ſlain during the Engagement and Purſuit--more Canadians and Indians have fallen, than ever fell at one Time before; many of their principal Officers, among whom is the Chevalier St. Pierre, who commanded all the French Indians on the Continent, and had the greateſt Influence over them——General Dieſkau who under the Marſhalls Saxe and Lowendall, was ſo often victorious in Flanders, is now a wounded Priſoner in our Camp, together with his Aid de Camp and about 30 others—On our Part, we have indeed loſt ſome Officers and Men of diſtinguiſhed Valor——but they fell in a glorious Cauſe, and their Names will be dear to Poſterity——The Advantages we have gained muſt give freſh Spirits to thoſe Men raiſed for a Reinforcement——We truſt in GOD that all our Forces will be ſtill enabled to act up to their Character, and do valiantly——That the Succeſs already obtained at Nova-Scotia and Lake George, are only Earneſts of future and more important ones——"Happy is that People, who have the God of Jacob for their Help—whoſe Hope is "in the Lord their God—for he alone is able to bring our Forces into the ſtrong Hold, "and to lead them into Edom."

Ariſe, O God, in our Behalf,
Thy Cauſe and ours maintain:
Remember how inſulting Fools,
Each Day thy Name profane.
Make Thou the Boaſting of our Foes,
For ever more to ceaſe;
Whoſe Inſolence unleſs chaſtiz'd,
Will more and more increaſe.

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, September 10, 1755.

"I have been here one Month; ſince which 13 Prizes have been brought in here, "with Wines, Melaſſes, Rum, Sugar, Bread, Flour, Silks, Cottons, &c. &c. Some "have been ſold very cheap at Vendue. Admiral Holbourne, off Louiſbourg, has taken "3 more Prizes, ſtripped one, and ſent all the Men into Louiſbourg; alſo upwards of "20 Shallops, and burnt all to one, and ſent their Men into Louiſbourg, to tell the "Governor if he wanted freſh Fiſh, he may ſend the Men of War out to catch them." ——[This you may depend on.

P. S. There are in and out upwards of 20 Sail of Men of War; but every Thing very plenty at preſent.

By Letters from Halifax we learn, that one of the Prizes ſent in there by Admiral Holbourne, had no leſs than 2200 Barrels of Flour, and a large Quantity of Beef and Pork on Board.

By

By the laſt Veſſels from Halifax we have Advice, That 200 of our Men having been put on Board one or more Veſſels, with Orders to deſtroy ſome French Villages, about 70 of them landed, and burnt all the private Houſes and Barns without Moleſtation, but juſt as they were ſetting Fire to the Maſs Houſe, they were fired upon by a large Body of French and Indians concealed in the Buſhes, who killed and wounded 23 of our People! Among the former is Lieutenant (or Dr.) March, and Lieutenant Billings is badly wounded. 'Tis ſaid our People have about 1200 of the Neutrals on Board their Tranſports, and that 1000 or 1200 Men French and Indians, among whom are 300 Regulars, are encamped on a riſing Ground, with a Flag of Defiance flying.

Wedneſday laſt an Officer arrived here from General Johnſon's Army near Lake George, with Letters from the General for this Government. He left the Camp the 17th Inſtant, and ſays there has been no Engagemement with the Enemy ſince that of the 8th——That Col. Blanchard was gone with a ſtrong Detachment from the Army, to begin the building of a Fort at the Carrying Place.——That Parties from the Camp were daily ſent out to diſcover the Enemy's ſlain, and to pick up Arms, &c. and that they had found a great Number of dead Bodies in Swamps and Holes, which they had carried off on Biers, 40 of which were found all bloody at the Side of a Pond.—That the Body of Hendrick, the old Mohawk Sachem, has been found among our Slain, and was buried with all the Honors of War.——The Baron Dieſkau, the French General, was ſent to Albany, with all the other Priſoners, and it was much doubted whether the Baron could be cured of his Wounds or no.---That the Battoes, and other Things neceſſary for accommodating the Army in its further Progreſs, were getting ready with the utmoſt Diſpatch.

NEW-HAVEN.

September 20. This Day Se'nnight came in here an Expreſs from the Camp at Crown-Point, informing, that the whole Army was ſurrounded by French and Indians, and wanted Help; whereupon the whole Town was alarmed, and beat up for Independents, and in leſs than ſix Hours above 80 healthy able-bodied Men offered their Service: And on Sabbath-Day Morning ſet out from hence for Major General Johnſon's Army (after ſupplying themſelves with 20 Days Proviſion) on Horſeback, under the Command of Doctor Leverit Hubbart. And,

On the 12th of this Inſtant, marched from this Town, for Crown-Point, Capt. James Peck, with a Company of 100 healthy able-bodied Men.

PHILADELPHIA.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in New-London, in Connecticut, September 17, 1755.

"The two Thouſand Additionals from this Colony have all been marched ſeveral Days ago. They went on Horſeback, and 'its ſuppoſed that moſt of them reached the Camp at Lake George this Day, and that the Remainder will be there by Sunday Night: There are now about 60 Perſons of this, and the neighbouring Towns, who have engaged to go to the Army as Volunteers, and continue the Campaign without Fee or Reward, provided they can be ſupplied with Ammunition and Proviſions. Theſe Men are in general conſiderable Farmers, of good Intereſt, and who live well. They have choſen their Officers, and I am in Hopes will ſet off on Monday next. We have in this little Town ſubſcribed near 300 l. York Currency, towards fitting them out, and whenever they ſet out I ſhall forward a Subſcription Paper to you, to procure Aſſiſtance from your Place, towards furniſhing them with Proviſions and Ammunition."
